

My @ Home Sermon Notes

East White Oak Bible Church Children's Ministry

"From tiny acorns come mighty oaks!"

My name is

Today's date is

Today's sermon is titled

Today's Bible passage is

Today's preacher is

The people in my house with whom I am worshipping today include

The songs we sang today were about

The pastor's prayer today included asking God for

What is a lie?

Why would someone tell a lie?

What do you call a person who says that God said something which He did not say?

Why would someone say that God said something which He didn't say?

What harm could someone cause by saying that God said things which He did not say?

What will God do to those who do such things?

What questions do you have about today's sermon?

List the words or ideas which you need help understanding.

What was the most important thing you learned today? Share it with those with whom you worshipped today.