

SERMON NOTES

Sunday, September 13, 2020 | Pastor Scott Boerckel

“Introduction to ‘Lessons from the First Church: A Story of Glory and Challenge’”

Various, Book of Acts

1. Who wrote Acts and why?

2. Where will we go in this book?

3. What kinds of things will we learn?

Table Talk

- 1) Who wrote the Acts of the Apostles? Why did he write this book?
- 2) What are the two main stories told in this book? What two people figure prominently, one for each of the two stories?
- 3) Why are we going to focus on the first of these two stories?
- 4) What kinds of things are true about the very first church that should be true of all churches?
- 5) What kinds of things are true about the very first church that likely will never be true of East White Oak?
- 6) How do those similarities and differences affect how we apply the principles in the book of Acts?