Why and How Do We Serve God?

1 Peter 4:7-11

Scott Boerckel, Senior Pastor

1. The end of all things is at hand. (1 Peter 4:7)

2. Be self-controlled and sober-minded. (1 Peter 4:8-11)

Table Talk

- 1) How can the end of all things be “at hand,” both in Peter’s day and in ours?
- 2) How does being self-controlled and sober-minded affect our prayers?
- 3) What three ways does Peter say are the means to being self-controlled and sober-minded? How does this surprise you?
- 4) Why might the relationships that we have with one another be more important in light of the end of all things?
- 5) How are you doing at showing hospitality? At serving by using your gifts for others? At loving one another earnestly?
- 6) What is the big purpose for all of this? How can you make all of life an offering of worship?
