The Power of Christ in Changing our Lives

Colossians 1:9-14

Scott Boerckel, Senior Pastor

1. Because of the hope of heaven, we can pray right now.
(Colossians 1: 9-12)

2. We need to know Who we are talking to when we pray. (Colossians 1:12-14)

Table Talk

- 1) What do you typically pray for? How are your prayers like or unlike Paul's for the Colossians?
- 2) What is Paul's big request in verse 9? Why is this request so important?
- 3) How is the prayer to be filled with the knowledge of God's will related to living a life that is worthy of the Lord and pleasing to Him? (vv. 9-10)
- 4) What four ways does Paul give which measure whether we are living lives worthy of the Lord? (vv 10-12)
- 5) Who is God the Father from verses 12-13? What has God the Son done for us in verse 14? How do these give us hope that Paul's prayer for the Colossians can be answered in our own lives?
- 6) Do you have sins that you have struggled with for years? How might these verses help in overcoming that?
