

• JULY 21, 2019 •

The Power of Christ for the Work Place

Colossians 3:22-4:1

Scott Boerckel, Senior Pastor

1. Christ empowers workers to God glorifying joy and obedience in the workplace. (Colossians 3:22-25)

2. Christ empowers bosses to God glorifying justice and fairness in the workplace. (Colossians 4:1)

Table Talk

- 1) Why is work important? What are workers told to do?
- 2) How are workers to work? What should be the attitude about work? What hinders that attitude?
- 3) What characterizes “working heartily”? Why does nearly everyone evaluate themselves as “good workers”? How does knowing that Jesus is your true boss make a difference in your work?
- 4) Why do the work principles here in this passage make work more joyous? What does it mean that wrongdoers will be punished?
- 5) What are ways that bosses can create a Christ exalting workplace? As a boss, why do you need to create a Christ exalting workplace?