1. The Genealogy of the Promised One (Matthew 1:1, 2, 17; Luke 3:34)
2. The life of Abraham as an expression of extravagant grace (Luke 13:10-17; 19:1-10)

3. The life of Abraham as an apologetic for the true kingdom of God. (various)

4. The life of Abraham as a declaration of Jesus' power as God to save
(John 8:31-59)

Table Talk

- 1) How is Abraham shown in the genealogies as a person of God's promise? Why does that matter to us? (Matthew 1:1, 2, 17; Luke 3:34)
- 2) In what ways does Jesus portray Abraham as an expression of God's extravagant grace? How does what you know from Abraham make this a good connection? (Luke 13:10-17; 19:1-10)
- 3) Why is Abraham helpful for knowing how to enter the kingdom of God? (Matthew 3:7-12; Matthew 22:23-33; Luke 13:22-30; and Luke 1:55, 73)
- 4) How does Jesus use Abraham as a way to declare Jesus' great power to save? (John 8:31-59)
- 5) What conclusions do you draw from the way that Abraham is portrayed in the Gospels?
